SHELTERING ARMS BOARD OF DIRECTORS APPOINTS NEW CHAIR, WELCOMES NEW MEMBERS

Includes leaders from the PwC, Federal Reserve Bank, UPS, Southern Education Foundation, Graphic Packaging International and Morehouse School of Medicine

Atlanta, GA – March 7, 2017 - Sheltering Arms is pleased to announce the appointment of its new board chair, as well as the addition of five new members.

Jeff Kammerer, who previously served as vice chair, will now step into the role of chair, succeeding Michael Smith, who will continue to serve as a board member. New members include: Leah Austin, Kevin Hamada, Lori Kacynski, John C. Pelick and Yasmin Tyler-Hill.

“We are very happy to welcome these highly accomplished leaders to our board,” said President and CEO Blythe Keeler Robinson. “Their diverse backgrounds and expertise will play a tremendous role in helping Sheltering Arms move forward with our mission to transform the lives of the children we serve and their families through high-quality early education and support services.”

- Leah Austin is the Vice President of Programs at Southern Education Foundation (SEF), where she has strategic and operational responsibility for all program areas. In this role, she oversees the Foundation's efforts to use collaboration, advocacy, and research to advance equity and excellence in education for all students in the South. Prior to joining SEF, Dr. Austin was a Senior Associate for the Annie E. Casey Foundation, where she managed a portfolio of investments, programs, and partnerships designed to increase the educational achievement of children living in Atlanta. Before that, she served as a Director of Programs for the United Way of Greater Atlanta, where she led the development and investment in early learning programming for the organization.
- Kevin Hamada is Director of Business Intelligence Systems at UPS where he is responsible for the analyzing and providing strategies, data and technologies that aid in the company's business decisions on a global scale. He also served as the Vice President of Education for the local Organization of Chinese Americans (OCA-Georgia) chapter where his responsibilities included outreach to companies and other organizations to increase the awareness of Asian Americans.

- Lori Kaczynski is the Vice President of Internal Audit, and Chief Audit Executive at Graphic Packaging International, Inc. She is also the Chief Financial Officer of The Institute of Internal Auditors, Inc.'s Atlanta Chapter. She has a diverse industry background with experience in both public and private companies in a wide variety of industries, including forest and consumer products, building products, packaging, chemicals, energy, housing, services, construction, retail, and health care.
- John C. Pelick is an Assistant Vice President at the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta in the Supervision and Regulation (S&R) division. For the past 12 years, John has held a variety of positions in S&R and most recently assumed responsibility for overseeing one of the Federal Reserve's largest state member banks with consolidated assets of over $100 billion. His duties include overseeing institutions that consist of several lines of business and various legal entities, and assessing their operations, financial performance, board of directors and senior management who are responsible for establishing and maintaining the company's culture, incentives, structure, and processes that promote compliance with laws, regulations, and supervisory guidance.
- Yasmin Tyler-Hill is Lead Clinician and Chairperson for the Department of Pediatrics at the Morehouse School of Medicine (MSM). In 2004, she reestablished the then-defunct Continuity Clinic and worked to improve and establish relationships with community partners such as the West End Medical Center. In addition to her MSM appointments, she serves as the medical director for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta at Hughes Spalding and serves on the Children's Medical Executive Committee. She also serves on various boards as the Georgia chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Georgia Pediatric Health Improvement Collaborative and the Medical Home Task Force in conjunction with Children's Healthcare of Atlanta.
