

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN INTENSIVE FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Looking for ways to grow the family engagement practice at your program? Building mutually respectful, goal-oriented relationships with families is essential for the ongoing learning and development of children.

Educare's new intensive family engagement training offers strategies for early learning professionals to further develop their knowledge and skills.

Trainers from Educare Atlanta will explore the essential components of intensive family engagement:

- Educators and family engagement staff will learn key strategies and practices for engaging and partnering with families.
- Program leaders will find out how they can best support their staff by creating a program culture of responsive and collective leadership and program infrastructure that supports family engagement and partnership.

TRAINING BENEFITS

- Apply the latest research in intensive family engagement to provide high-quality services for young children and families.
- Learn how to meet national requirements and rigorous standards for program quality in the early childhood field.
- Receive free training in the Metro Atlanta area.
- Earn 5 hours of quality professional development
- Meet Georgia Quality Rated guidelines for professional development by workforce development in the ECE field within our state.
